

DOL BOWL Trophy Finally gets a Name

LADIESSS AND GENTLEMANNNNN... BOYS AND GIRLS..... CHILDREN OF ALLL AGESSSS.... PLEASE RISEEEE FOR YOUR LEAGUE OVERLORDDDD..... BBBB BBBB HATHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!!

Thank you, Thank you.... Let's get right to business here:

It was voted upon this past week and after 11 years, the DOL BOWL Championship Trophy finally has a name...."THE KAPOWSKI."

Named after 90's Saved By the Bell Character, Kelly Kapowski.

After much deliberation, it was decided that there will be TWO different styles of trophy for the Champion to choose from, both of which are right here next to me. Either style the winner chooses will be placed in their trophy rooms and in the Hall of Champions. This will only be moving forward and the past winner's trophy will not be replaced.

I have also made an executive decision as League Manager. Since the league's inception we have had a plaque, with the winner's names engraved on it. For years I've tossed around the idea of a trophy to pass around, but I've finally come to a decision that I am very happy with. Last week, I made a purchase for all of the past winners and future winners to have a ring/display box. (seen below).

As long as my funds permit, the Champion will receive a T-Shirt, Championship Ring, and of course the monetary winnings they earn as well as their place on DOLHALLOFFAME.com. The plaque will remain updated and will be the responsibility of the LM. If I ever step down or am no longer League Manager, the new one will inherit the responsibility as they see fit.

It has also been voted upon by the Unity Council to no longer observe and sanction the Taf vs Weston game as a "rivalry." The Friendship Bracelet will be removed from last year's winners trophy case immediately.

Lastly, your voice has been heard and this year's first annual DOL AWARDS will take place the week prior to DOL BOWL XI. Be on the lookout for a ballot, as everyone gets a vote for all of this year's awards.

Thank you for your time and enjoy the rest of your previously recorded broadcast. Please take the time to view the newly redesigned rivalry section of the website here:

ALSO... five people have yet to pay. (that's $75 of league fees not collected.)

PLEASE pay as soon as possible.

Last week's Game of the Week between two undefeated squads in Nelson's Mom and Pop squad and Troy's racists came down to a great performance from Nelson's Brandon Marshall and the Seattle defense holding Kaep in line. Nelski held on for a big win over who many consider the strongest team in the league, 115.2-91.7. After the game we caught up with Hathaway in the Locker Room for a quote:

Nelson: "A big shout out to the Seahawk's "D" for shutting down Kaepernick. This is the best start I've ever had in DOL and I don't plan on stopping anytime soon. LEGGGOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!"

The biggest news of the week came in the form of two big trades. (Both of which I'm not even sure Will even knows about because I am convinced he's the Bobby Bowden of the league and has no idea what actually goes on in DOL.) The first came in the form of a four man swap as Taf gave up MJD and V-Jax to Hank for Ridley and Julio Jones. This ended up being to the extreme benefit of Taf and his team name that should be Jacob's team name squad as they rolled to a huge 148-117 on the coattails of a huge Julio Jones performance.... Thanks Hank.

The other trade was highly scrutinized throughout the league as Hath/Creel sent over the league's lone starting running back that wasn't being started in DOL in DeAngelo Williams and their second starting receiver in Torrey Smith to rival Jacob for A.J. Green. This trade did not benefit either of them this week as Hath/Creel got rolled up by BobZane 112-81, earning their first win of the season behind Moreno (not Dan)'s 26 points. Jacob and his Anorexic team from Puerto Rico didn't even start Williams and ended up getting a combined 2.7 points from BOTH running backs.... As he got Buttfumbled by Will 104-85. (Will may not even know he played this week if someone could tell him please.)

Our current champion who nobody has heard from this season got his first win this week, handing a win-less Lucky Dynasty squad a 141-108 beat down.

Lastly, but not least was Whitson squeezing past Weston by 10 points, surviving a ridiculous 43 point showing by Mr. Rodgers himself.

These power rankings are based on a highly complex system of picking the top 5 teams we think are beast mode despite their places in the polls.

This would normally be where you see the Champ's Corner. Remember that? Oh what was that? I understand, it's been so long ago that you probably don't remember what it is. It's just a little space the Champ gets for just being the champ. Just a little place to call out people in the league or basically talk about whatever. Why haven't you seen a Champ's Corner this year for the first time since it's inception? Oh well probably because our champ has been M.I.A with the exception of releasing his first single with DOL RECORDS on draft day. So if anyone has seen or heard from our champ. Let him know you'd like to hear from him in the Champ's Corner.

MISSING

The Former “Battle for the Friendship Bracelet” is this week’s Game of the Week. This matchup pits the #1 team in the land in Taf (with what should be Jacob’s team name) against Weston. While no Friendship bracelet is on the line, neither team wants to lose. Quietly Taf has powered up to the #1 spot for the first time since 2011 and won’t want to let go, even To his best friend.
